Allowable Subject Matter

1. Claims 1 – 40 are allowed.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

2. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The most remarkable prior art of record are Goykhman (US Patent Publication No. 2002/0174134), Collado (U.S. Patent Publication No. 2002/0069145) Eisenburg (US Patent Publication No. 2003/0069815) and Katz (U.S. Patent No. 5,963,912)

Goykhman is not directed to using a computer to automatically track an individual's task-by-task timekeeping associated with a personal code. Goykhman does not disclose an individual timekeeper entry box which includes a personal code and contemporaneously tracks time associated with the personal code that a document, service or telephone call is in use or in session. Instead, Goykhman is directed to monitoring time by selected activity, not by individual.

Collado simply discloses a "user interface" for entry of information in a timecard and a "calendar system" enabling a user to enter "appointment data specifying the data and start/end time for each appointment entry, as well as descriptive information regarding the appointment." This teaches away from the invention because the entry in the invention is done automatically by the system.

None of the prior art of record remedies the deficiencies found in Goykhman, Collado, Eisenburg or Katz. Furthermore, neither the prior art, the nature of the problem, nor knowledge of a person having ordinary skill in the art, provide any reasonable rationale to combine prior art teachings.

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Conclusion

3. The prior art made of record and not relied upon is considered pertinent to applicant's disclosure. "ACCU-SORT SHOWS NEW SHOP FLOOR DATA COLLECTION SYSTEM THAT COMBINES FLEXIBILITY, SIMPLICITY, AND ECONOMY." Accu-Sort System, Inc. Journal, Nov. 1, 1988.
